

LECTURE SUMMARY:

Title: "A day in the life . . ."

Level: All

Duration: 60-90 minutes

Description:

Most family history researchers are interested in the daily events in the lives of their ancestors. This presentation deals with common activities of families on the farm and in the trades. The details provided represent the culmination of the presenter's reading on the topic over the last decade, from hard-to-find literature available only to the German audience.
